CLARKE COLLEGE CHAPLAINS

Father Halbach

THE REVEREND ARTHUR A. HALBACH, Ph.D., was appointed chaplain of Clarke College by Archbishop Rohlman in February, 1948. In the past 18 months Father Halbach has become a vital part of life at Clarke, officiating at religious services and lending support and enthusiasm to all activities. His weekly sermons, his Holy Hour meditations, his religion classes will provide food for thought for many years to come.

THE REVEREND LAWRENCE J. GUTER is as familiar a figure at Maryhall as he is at Clarke. Father Guter offers Mass in the Maryhall chapel and the Clarke chapel on alternate weeks.

THE REVEREND EUGENE WEIMER alternates with Father Guter in their Maryhall-Clarke chaplain duties. Both Father Guter and Father Weimer have served as chaplains since 1947.

THE REVEREND JOHN J. PITZEN is Clarke's most recent addition to its chaplain corps. Father Pitzen celebrates Mass every Wednesday morning in the Chapel of Our Lady.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Miss Anderson

Marianne Anderson

Maxima Cum Laude

Chicago, Illinois
The Immaculata High School

Major: Home Economics
Minor: Chemistry

ONE OF THE most versatile members of the class, Marianne is known for her energetic cooperation. An enthusiastic swimming champion and a competent culinary artist, she's as talented in athletics as she is valuable on the Kitchen of Tomorrow broadcasts. She's off to Los Angeles on her dietetics career.

Sodality 1-4; C.C. Players 1-4; vice-president 3; Kappa Kappa Pi; WAA 1-4, athletic awards 1-4; water ballet 1-4; basketball 1-4, champion team 1-3; volleyball 1-4, champion team 1-2; Terance J. Donaghoe scholarship 2; Radio club 3-4; Home Economics club 1-4; Dean's List, 10 times; Kappa Gamma Pi honor society.

Miss Bartels

Virginia Mary Bartels

Maxima Cum Laude

Dubuque, Iowa
Dubuque Senior High School

Major: Social Science
Minors: Spanish, Education

GINNY IS the city student expert on bridge. A major in social science, she has been active on the Social Science Club board for the past two years. Consistently on the Dean's List, she receives her degree "with greatest praise" and plans to teach next year in her major field.

Sodality 1-4; Social Science Club 3-4; Board member 3-4; WAA 2-4; Art Club 2; Dean's List, 13 times; Delta Epsilon Sigma honor society.

Colleen Mary Best

Peoria, Illinois
Academy of Our Lady

Major: Home Economics
Minors: Science, Education

ANYONE WHO notices Colleen's third finger, left hand, will certainly hear details of her September wedding. As co-chairman of the Winter Formal in her junior year, Col helped to create that enchanting sophisticated atmosphere. She'll spend the summer doing dietetics work in her home town.

Sodality 1-4; Home Economics Club 1-4; Cecilian Circle 2-4; Art Club 1; Radio Kitchen 3-4.

Miss Best

Monica Dorothy Breitbach

Waupeton, Iowa
St. Joseph Academy, Dubuque

Major: Biology
Minor: Chemistry

SENIORS COUNT on Monica when it comes to winning basketball and volleyball laurels for the class. Because of her athletic accomplishments the seniors chose her for their athletic captain. In September she'll go to Kansas City, Missouri, to begin her internship as a laboratory technologist.

Sodality 1-4; Biology Forum 3-4; WAA 1-4; athletic awards 1-4; basketball 1-4, champion team 1-3, captain 4; volleyball 1-4, champion team 1-2; tennis 3-4; Dean's List, 6 times.

Miss Breitbach

Estelle Ordean Brundage

Fairplay, Colorado
Mt. St. Gertrude Academy, Boulder

Major: Biology
Minor: Chemistry

ACCORDING TO Estelle, there's no place quite like Colorado—with a broad "a." Her embroidery and knitting contribute to her hope chest for her June wedding when she will become the first bride of the Class of '49.

Sodality 1-4; Biology Forum 3-4; Press Club 3-4, treasurer; Labarum staff 1-4, circulation editor 4; Glee Club 1; Cecilian Circle 1-2; Water Ballet 3; Dean's List, 12 times.

Miss Brundage

Nancy Ann Calkins

Ottumwa, Iowa
Immaculate Conception Academy,
Davenport

Major: Spanish
Minors: Social Science, Education

NANCE IS one of those invaluable girls who can be called on to do anything. She welcomed incoming freshmen as chairman of the Tuck-Pointers as graciously as she guided her junior class as president and as efficiently as she worked on the Annual as editor-in-chief.

Sodality 1-4; chairman of Mission Guild 2; junior class president; editor-in-chief of Annual 4; Social Science Club 3-4; C.C. Players 1-4, Kappa Kappa Pi drama society; chairman of Tuck-Pointers 4; WAA 1-4; Glee Club 1; Water Ballet 2-4; Dean's List, 5 times; Delta Epsilon Sigma honor society.

Miss Calkins

Shirley Mae Clark

Dubuque, Iowa
St. Joseph's Academy
Des Moines, Iowa

Major: Sociology
Minor: Elementary Education

A DRAKE UNIVERSITY transfer student, Shirley came to Clarke as a sophomore. She knits, plays bridge, reads, and is an avid golf fan. Shirley was selected by her class to be one of the May queen attendants in both her junior and senior years.

Sodality 2-4; Social Science club 3-4; WAA 2-4.

Miss Clark

Miss Campbell

Mary Patricia Campbell

Galesburg, Illinois
St. Joseph Academy

Major: Home Economics
Minor: Science

PETITE PAT with the sparkling brown eyes is always willing to party. Noted for her exquisite taste in clothes, "Skin" lists knitting and reading as her favorite diversions. Next year she will be a dietetics interne at Harding's in Chicago.

Sodality 1-4; Home Economics Club 1-4; Cecilian Circle 1-4.

Miss Classen

Dolores LaVerne Classen

Cicero, Illinois
Morton High School

Major: Sociology
Minors: Psychology, Science

TALL BLOND DOLLY, with the perfect posture and the graceful walk, came to Clarke after a year at Morton Junior College. Always interested in people, she especially likes to analyze their minds. Dolly was one of the attractive attendants to the prom queen at the Rose Ball.

Sodality 2-4; Social Science club 2-4; C.C. Players 2-4; WAA 2-3; Prom queen candidate 4.

Miss Coogan

Elizabeth Ann Coogan

Peoria, Illinois
Academy of Our Lady

Major: Biology
Minor: Chemistry

ANN OF THE WRY comment and subtle wink is as attractive as she is humorous. She has an endless supply of stories about her family, and a mailbox filled with Notre Dame mail. Ann's famous last words are, "Push back your chairs and take your coke bottles."

Sodality 1-4; Biology Forum 3-4; Courier staff 3; WAA 1-2; Cecilian Circle 1; Press club 3; Prom queen candidate 4; Dean's List, once; Delta Epsilon Sigma honor society.

Lillian Marie Cunningham

Cedar Rapids, Iowa
St. Patrick's High School

Major: Chemistry
Minor: Biology

TALL, DIGNIFIED Lillian has been first in chapel ranks and first in the hearts of her fellow classmates. A handy girl with a test tube or an embroidery needle, her room is always the homey gathering-place for a large group of seniors.

Sodality 1-4; C.C. Players 2-4, treasurer 4; Orchestra 3-4; WAA 1-4; Radio Club 1-4; Glee Club 1-3-4; Mixed Chorus 3-4; Water Ballet 3-4; Cecilian Circle 1-3; Athletic awards 2-3; Alma Mater 3; Dean's List, once.

Miss Cunningham

Jane Ann Davidsaver

Dubuque, Iowa
St. Joseph Academy

Major: Foods and Nutrition
Minor: Science

A WILLINGNESS to help on every occasion, a winning smile, and a crown of vivid titian hair make Janie her class's choice for city student representative and the school's choice for queen of the Senior Prom. She surprised all with her soprano voice in the college day program!

Sodality 1-4; SLC representative 4; Home Economics Club 1-4, secretary 2, vice-president 3; WAA 1-4; Athletic awards 2-4; Senior Prom queen.

Miss Davidsaver

Lucille Ann Donavon

Chicago, Illinois
Academy of Our Lady

Major: Drama
Minors: English, Education

ANN CAME to Clarke to major in biology, but the fascination of footlights and grease paint overcame her. As Victoria Regina and Jeanne D'Arc in Clarke's spring productions, and as the Chinese heroine in Loras' Lute Song, Ann graciously received the plaudits of theatre-goers.

Sodality 1-4; chairman of Catholic Evidence Guild 2; C.C. Players 1-4, president 3-4, secretary 2; Kappa Kappa Pi drama society; WAA 1-3; Social Science Club 1; Radio Club 1-4.

Miss Donavon

Miss Duffy

Mary Sheila Duffy

Dubuque, Iowa
Dubuque Senior High School

Major: Sociology
Minor: History

CALM AND UNRUFFLED, Sheila seems to have no care in the world. She possesses a quiet sense of humor and a deep wit which delight her friends. Her summer vacations, scattered from New York to California, have supplied her with enough stories to last a century.

Sodality 1-4; Social Science Club 4; WAA 1-3; Sociology club 3.

Miss Eversman

Rosemary Eversman

Burlington, Iowa
Burlington High School

Major: Home Economics
Minor: Science

ROSEMARY CAME to Clarke from Iowa State College in her sophomore year and immediately found a place for herself in the home economics department. She'll use her training to advantage in September when she begins her dietetics internship at the United States Marine Hospital in Staten Island.

Sodality 2-4; Home Economics Club 2-4.

Phyllis Lucy Faber

Dubuque, Iowa

Washington High School,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Major: Biology
Minor: Chemistry

MILWAUKEE IS Phyllis' first love, and back to Milwaukee she will go after graduation to take her internship in medical technology at the Milwaukee County Hospital. Phyllis, a transfer student from Mount Mary College, Milwaukee, came to Clarke as a sophomore.

Sodality 2-4; Biology Forum 3-4.

Miss Faber

Miss Feeney

Geraldine Feeney

Dubuque, Iowa
Visitation Academy

Major: Economics
Minor: Spanish

LORAS' HOMECOMING queen this year, candidate for Ski Queen last year, Gerry is always a queen in the opinion of her classmates. Golf, swimming, bowling, and bridge provide a versatile life for this lovely econ major who has a charming smile and a good word for all.

Sodality 1-4; SLC representative 1; WAA 2; Dean's List, 3 times.

Miss Gaffney

Margaret Mary Gaffney

Stanley, Wisconsin
Stanley High School

Major: Foods and Nutrition
Minor: Science

"MISS SMILES" identifies Peggy who is always busy chairmaning some committee. Senior class treasurer this year, treasurer of two clubs last year, Peggy greets all suggestions with, "I don't think we can afford it." She'll be off for New York soon to continue her work in dietetics.

Sodality 1-4; Senior class treasurer; Home Economics Club 1-4, treasurer 3, president 4; C.C. Players 1-4; Kappa Kappa Pi drama society; WAA 1-4.

Miss Goodall

Veronica Teresa Goodall

Delmar, Iowa
Delmar High School

Major: Biology
Minor: Chemistry, Education

RONNY, THE blue-eyed girl with the delightfully naive smile, is the youngest in the class and hates to be teased about it. Sophomore May queen, she was one of the candidates for queen of the Senior Prom. A biology major, she'll start teaching in her high school alma mater in fall.

Sodality 1-4; WAA 1-4; basketball 1-4, champion team 1-3; volleyball 1-4, champion team 1-2; Biology Forum 3-4; senior Prom queen candidate.

Patricia Graney

Maxima Cum Laude
Des Moines, Iowa
St. Joseph Academy

Major: Sociology
Minors: French, English

EFFICIENCY IS Pat's middle name. Whether she's planning a Sodality project or typing a term paper, she does it quickly and well. An active member of the Social Science Club, Pat is always eager to express her opinions on every topic.

Sodality 1-4, prefect 4, vice-prefect 3, secretary 2; Social Science Club 2-4; C.C. Players 2-4; WAA 1-4; Press Club 3-4; Courier staff 1-4, associate editor 3-4; Editorial award 3; Labarum staff 1-4; Annual staff 4; Dean's List, 16 times; Kappa Gamma Pi honor society.

Miss Graney

Miss Grotkin

Eleanor Regina Grotkin

Benton, Wisconsin
St. Clara Academy, Sinsinawa
Major: Economics
Minor: English

TALL, BLONDE ELEANOR is one of the faithful chauffeurs between Mount Carmel and Clarke. Rather shy until one gets to know her, Eleanor enjoys all kinds of athletics and, on the more cultural side, art and drama. She also manages to be active in the many clubs to which she belongs.

Sodality 1-4; C.C. Players 2-4, secretary 3-4; Kappa Kappa Pi drama society; Social Science Club 1-2-4; Cecilian Circle 1-3; WAA 1-4; volleyball 2-3, champion team 2; Glee Club 2.

Virginia Aurelia Heidkamp

Chicago, Illinois
The Immaculata High School
Major: Spanish
Minors: Sociology, Education

GINNY'S INFECTIOUS laughter keeps her classmates happy. An expert bridge player, "the" senior connoisseur on argyles, she turned the Union into a formal reception hall in junior year and helped to keep the social committee of the sodality active during her senior year.

Sodality 1-4, co-chairman of social committee 4; C.C. Players 1-4; Kappa Kappa Pi drama society; WAA 3-4; Tuck-pointer 4.

Miss Heidkamp

Jeanne Heitkamp

Cum Laude
Dubuque, Iowa
Visitation Academy

Major: Art
Minor: English

ARTISTIC JEANNE is famous for her paintings, her portraits, and particularly for her clever cartoons. Art editor of The Labarum. Jeanne contributes not only illustrations but also prize-winning short stories. She is especially interested in psychology and puts it to effective use in her story plots.

Sodality 1-4; Labarum staff 2-4, art editor 3-4; Press Club 3-4; Art Club 1-4; first place Kappa Gamma Pi national short story contest 4; fourth place Atlantic College Contest 4; Mary Blake Finan Award 4; Dean's List, 10 times; Delta Epsilon Sigma honor society.

Miss Heitkamp

Mary Virginia Hilvers

Dubuque, Iowa
St. Joseph Academy

Major: Economics
Minors: Social Science, Education

THE CLASS of '49 will always remember Mary Vee and her "magic violin." She was concertmaster in the Clarke orchestra for the past year and has also provided the violin harmony in the college trio. Frail and unathletic looking, Mary Vee is always an unhappy surprise to her guard on the basketball floor.

Sodality 1-4; Social Science Club 2-4; Cecilian Circle 4; Orchestra 3-4, orchestra award 4; college trio 1-3; WAA 1-4; athletic awards 1-4; basketball 1-4, champion team 1-3; volleyball 1-4, champion team 1-2; Dean's List, 6 times.

Miss Hilvers

Miss Hogan

Joan Veronica Hogan

Chicago, Illinois
Aquinas High School

Major: Biology
Minor: Chemistry

DARK-HAIRED JOAN always appears calm and cool, even when she's dissecting a cat in the science lab. President of the Biology Forum, Joan has managed to spread her interests to drama, music and swimming. She's famous for her "knock-knock" jokes.

Sodality 1-4; Biology Forum 3-4, president 4; WAA 1-3; C.C. Players 1-2; Kappa Kappa Pi drama society; Water Ballet 3-4; May queen attendant 3; Dean's List, once.

Mary C. Hoyman

Cum Laude
Dubuque, Iowa
St. Columbkille High School

Major: Home Economics
Minor: Chemistry

DYNAMIC WITH a basketball (she alternates as forward and guard) Mary was invaluable to her class at tournament time. The entire school appreciated her efficiency and good will all year round when she served as vice-president of the SLC. Mary is off to Iowa to get her master's in dietetics.

Sodality 1-4; Vice-president of SLC 4, representative 2-3; WAA 1-4, secretary 2-3, sports captain 1; athletic awards 1-4; basketball 1-4, champion team 1-3, captain 1, All-Star team 3-4; volleyball 1-3, champion team 1; Home Economics Club 1-4; Dean's List, 10 times; Kappa Gamma Pi honor society.

Miss Hoyman

Miss Hugron

Joan Julia Hugron

Sioux City, Iowa
Cathedral High School

Major: Piano
Minor: English

WHENEVER JOAN's friends are traveling, they're sure she'll be satisfied with a note—provided it's written on a picture postcard which she can add to her collection. Joan has all the qualifications for a successful music teacher but she hopes to be a housewife in the not too distant future.

Sodality 1-4; Cecilian Circle 1-4; Glee Club 1-3-4; Mixed Chorus 3-4, treasurer 3; college trio 1-4; WAA 3; National Federation of Student Musicians 3-4.

Helen L. Hutchinson

Rock Island, Illinois
Villa de Chantal

Major: Public School Music
Minor: English

HELEN ALWAYS says she has to follow her impulses, especially when it means harmonizing with Lucille Lee on "In the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia." One short story in The Labarum is her only claim to fame, but to those who know her she's famous for her sense of humor and her dependability.

Sodality 1-4; Cecilian Circle 1-4, secretary 4; Glee Club 4; Mixed Chorus 3-4; C.C. Players 1-2; WAA 1.

Miss Hutchinson

Miss Johnson

Myrna Ellen Johnson

East Chicago, Indiana
Bishop Noll High School
Hammond, Indiana

Major: Piano
Minor: English, Education

WHETHER IT's presiding at an SLC meeting, wrapping fancy gift packages, or playing the Clarke Shield Song at assembly time, Myrna is equally efficient. An SLC officer for the past three years, she has helped to make student government a living, practical ideal at Clarke.

Sodality 1-4; SLC president 4, treasurer 3, secretary 2; Cecilian Circle 1-4; Glee Club 2-4; Mixed Chorus 3-4; Orchestra 3-4; WAA 3-4; Courier staff 1-2; Water Ballet 4; National Federation of Student Musicians 3-4; Mary Agnes O'Connor Award 4; Dean's List, 7 times; Kappa Gamma Pi honor society.

Miss Jungels

Jean Marie Jungels

Dubuque, Iowa
St. Joseph Academy

Major: English
Minors: Journalism, Latin

WHEN JEAN meanders up to school after supper, it's because of a Courier deadline, an Annual staff meeting or a Press Club meeting—all evidences of Jean's faithfulness and of her interest in journalism. She plans to teach her other interests, English and Latin, in Maquoketa next year.

Sodality 1-4; Press Club 3-4, secretary; Courier staff 3-4, news editor 4; Associate editor of Annual 4; Editorial award 4.

Elaine Theresa Kuhl

Dubuque, Iowa
Visitation Academy

Major: Biology
Minor: Chemistry

LABORATORY TECHNOLOGY is in Elaine's immediate future for she'll be interning in this field in fall. A charming member of the Tuck-pointer society, her charming smile and gracious personality helped to put the freshmen at ease last September. Elaine likes all types of sports, especially bowling.

Sodality 1-4; Biology Forum 3-4; WAA 1-4; athletic award 3; Tuck-pointer 4; Dean's List, once.

Miss Kuhl

Patricia Joan Lalley

Dubuque, Iowa
Cathedral High School
Sioux City, Iowa

Major: Biology
Minor: Chemistry

WHEN IS A city student not a city student? When she's Patty Lalley who for two years of boarding at Clarke finds herself very much at home in the Res hall. Biology is Patty's forte and she'll study for her master's in this field on a scholarship at the University of Kentucky.

Sodality 1-4; Biology Forum 3-4, secretary-treasurer; Associate editor of the Annual 4; WAA 1-4; Cecilian Circle 1-2; Glee Club 1; Tuck-pointer 4; Dean's List, 6 times.

Miss Lalley

Miss Lassance

Ethel Alice Lassance

Epworth, Iowa
Epworth High School
Major: Mathematics
Minors: History, Education

TWICE A MEMBER of the college All-Star basketball team, Ethel has been a star guard in the opinion of her classmates for four years. The only math major among the seniors, she takes to numbers like a duck to water. She'll start teaching her favorite subject in the fall.

Sodality 1-4; WAA 1-4; athletic awards 2-4; basketball 1-4, All-Star team 3-4, champion team 1-3; volleyball 1-4, champion team 1-3; Dean's List, 6 times.

Miss Lee

Lucille Helen Lee

St. Anne, Illinois
Bishop Noll High School
Hammond, Indiana

Major: Biology
Minors: Chemistry, Education

OF ALL HER accomplishments, Lucille is proudest of the fact that she passed quant chemistry. Her classmates will remember her, though, for her outstanding alto voice, her parodies for the junior program, her passion for coffee, her ability to sleep on any and all occasions, and, above all, for her selfless cooperation.

Sodality 2-4; vice-president of senior class; Biology Forum 3-4; WAA 2-4; basketball 2-4, champion team 2-3, captain 3; volleyball 2-4, champion team 3; Water Ballet 3-4; Annual staff 4.

Susan Mary Loosbrock

Dubuque, Iowa
St. Clara Academy
Sinsinawa, Wisconsin

Major: Economics
Minor: Spanish

LONG BLONDE HAIR, charming smile, and bandbox appearance all mark Sue for the person she is. Circulation editor of the 1949 Annual, she helped to keep the staff out of the red. She's a music fan, and lists swimming and tennis as her favorite sports.

Sodality 1-4; WAA 1-2; Glee Club 1-2; class treasurer 1; Annual staff 4; Water Ballet 1; Dean's List, 2 times.

Miss Loosbrock

Mary Frances McCarten

Dubuque, Iowa
St. Joseph Academy

Major: Home Economics
Minor: Science

DRAMA IS ONE of Mary McCarten's avocations and she has followed it to the Loras stage where she has taken many of the feminine roles in the Loras productions. This summer she will follow her career in home economics to Chicago where she will take her dietetics internship with Harding's company.

Sodality 1-4; Home Economics Club 1-4, treasurer 4; WAA 2-3.

Miss McCarten

Mary Alice McDermott

Kansas City, Missouri
Bishop Hogan High School

Major: Sociology
Minor: Spanish

"LITTLE ONE" stretches her 4' 9½" into five feet of tallness. Boasting one of the most attractive rooms in the Res hall, Mary Alice fills it with her souvenir collection. This year she did her bit for the missions as co-chairman of the Sodality mission guild.

Sodality 1-4, Mission Guild co-chairman 4; Social Science Club 3-4, secretary; WAA 3-4; Cecilian Circle 1-2; Tuck-pointer 4.

Miss McDermott

Mary Teresa McGinnis

Chicago, Illinois
Trinity High School
River Forest, Illinois

Major: Sociology
Minor: Speech

WHETHER IT'S student teaching, dancing an Irish jig, co-chairmaning a Chicago dance, or managing the business end of the spring production, Mary will always accomplish the impossible. Classmates make her "supply store" room headquarters to enjoy her extensive collection of records and her sundry candy treats.

Sodality 1-4, chairman of the publicity guild 3; Social Science Club 3-4; Radio Club 2-4; C.C. Players 1-4; Kappa Kappa Pi drama society 2-4; WAA 1-4; Water Ballet 3-4; Tuck-pointer 4.

Miss McGinnis

Helen Teresa McMahon

Fort Dodge, Iowa
St. Mary's High School
Grand Island, Nebraska

Major: English
Minor: General Science

THE SOCIETY PAGE of the Fort Dodge Gazette benefits every summer from Helen's journalistic pen, but after graduation she'll teach English. In the short intervals between Couriers Helen manages to keep busy by directing Press Club activities or by writing skits and parodies for some program.

Sodality 1-4; Press Club 3-4, president 4; Courier staff 1-4, associate editor 4; Labarum staff 3-4; Radio Club 2-4; class historian 2; Cecilian Circle 1; C.C. Players 1-4; Social Science Club 3-4; WAA 1-4; athletic award 1-2; Glee Club 1; Water Ballet 3-4; Editorial award 4.

Miss McMahon

Helen Anne Mier

Chicago, Illinois
Aquinas High School

Major: Sociology
Minor: Psychology

DRESS HELEN in one of her chic ensembles and she's the literal "dream walking." To remember class programs is to remember Helen's parodies, and to remember the Loras homecoming is to remember Helen in the Queen's court. She may drive her roommate insane with her beginner's typing, but her assignments will be done on time.

Sodality 1-4, social committee co-chairman 4; Social Science Club 1-4; WAA 1-4; Cecilian Circle 1; Annual staff 4, circulation manager.

Miss Mier

Miss Mitchell

Jane Ellen Mitchell

Des Moines, Iowa
St. Joseph Academy

Major: Speech
Minors: English, Education

WEDDINGS in general, her own in particular, President Roosevelt, or dramatics are Jane's favorite topics of conversation. Her version of "Little Red Hooding Ride" has become as famous as her explanation of N-F-C-C-S. Her best work is done just before the zero hour.

Sodality 1-4; class president 2; class secretary 1; NFCCS senior delegate 3-4; Radio Club, president 3-4; C.C. Players 2-4; WAA 1-4; Press Club 3; Courier staff 1; Labarum staff 1-3; Glee Club 1; Dean's List, 5 times; Kappa Gamma Pi honor society.

CLARKE

STUDENT COOPERATION in government at Clarke is effected through the Student Leadership Council. By means of the SLC Board the various college activities are coordinated and matters of general school interest are handled.

During the 1948-49 scholastic year the SLC sponsored several Clarke-Loras mixers, the Chicago Christmas dance, the first Marriage Clinic, the college Annual, and the second biennial student congress.

Morrison, Betty Campbell, Phillis Frazier, Gloria Sable. Standing: Jane Ann Davidsaver, Lucille Lee, Charleen Reilly, Rosemary Wiltgen, Kathy Leonard, Mary Kelleher, Mary Frances Wrenn, Sheila Hogan, Patricia Craemer.

EVERY CLARKE GIRL belongs to the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Sodality at Clarke is one of the first chartered Sodalities in the United States for it was organized in 1846. It promotes the spiritual welfare of the students and provides for activities which relate to their religious life.

SODALITY OFFICERS for 1948-49: Jean Stenson, secretary; Patricia Graney, prefect; Peggy Sweeney, treasurer; Janet Mullen, vice-prefect.

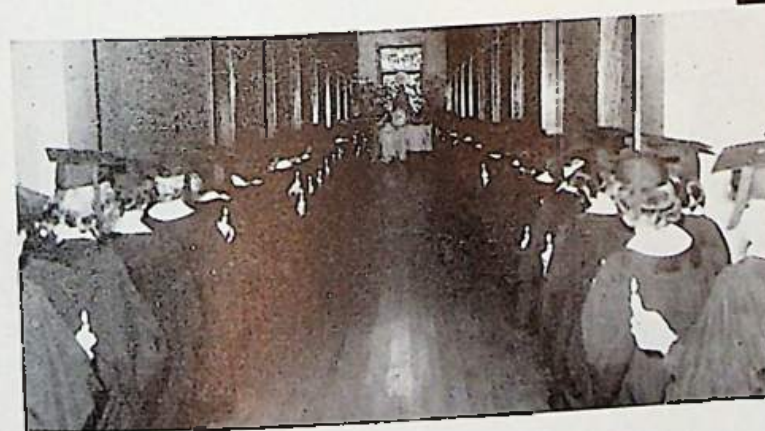

SODALITY

Sodality customs are many: Recitation of the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin at monthly meetings, First Friday adoration, reception of new sodalists on December 8, special observance of the Feast of Christ the King, Christmas gifts for orphans, drives for home and foreign missions, the May coronation ceremony. As an extra project this year the sodality sponsored the renovation of the Grotto of Our Lady.

Guild chairmen for the past year were Ann Coogan, Mary Alice McDermott, Theresa Mackin, Kathleen Dumser, Rosemarie Browne, and Betty Campbell.

RADIO CLUB

THE REMODELING of the college radio studio and the opening of Clarke's radio station, CLRK, were the highlights on the calendar of activities for the Radio Club. The new studio and control room, equipped with the most modern radio apparatus, are located in the Fine Arts building.

A new weekly program, "Everyone Listens," was introduced this year especially for the children of DuBuque although it has been quite as popular among adults. The broadcast, planned by Moya Lagen, featured original stories and also adaptations of famous stories for children. The program followed the regular Clarke program, "A Woman's World."

Next year the club plans to follow a daily schedule of campus broadcasting in which all departments of the college will participate.

Officers of the Club for the past year were Jane Mitchell, president, and Maribeth DeWitt, secretary.

CLARKE COLLEGE PLAYERS

PIONEERS in the field of the arena theater, the C.C. Players opened their 1948-49 season October 27 with the second annual Penthouse Portraits which included two one-act plays, White Queen, Red Queen, and They're None of Them Perfect.

At Christmas time the club presented the American premier of The Canticle of the Nativity which was the major part of the all-college Christmas production.

An original dramatic monologue on the life of Mary Magdalene was presented by Jane Mitchell, with the assistance of the C.C. Players, as her graduate recital in spring. The climax of the season was the spring production, Jeanne D'Arc, which starred Ann Donavon and Rosemary Rapp. The choric drama, by Margaret Cleary Anderson, was presented May 7 and 8.

HOME ECONOMICS

MAJORS AND MINORS in Home Economics are members of this club which is affiliated with the American Home Economics Association and the Iowa group.

The intellectual advancement of its members, the promotion of friendship, sociability, and education, and the arousing of interest in new phases of home economics are the objectives of the club. Meetings are held quarterly. The first is planned by the club members; the second is the traditional Christmas party; the third is a formal dinner, and the last meeting features "Who's Who and Where" among the Clarke's Home Economics seniors.

Members of the club assist in the presentation of the weekly broadcast, "A Kitchen of Tomorrow," a program aired over radio station WKBB and intended to aid home-makers to keep up with modern culinary trends and to aid students in acquiring radio experience in their chosen field.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

THE SOCIAL SCIENCE Club draws to its membership those interested in the inter-related fields of sociology, history, and economics. The club seeks to create an active interest in current affairs and social questions. Meetings are well planned, and time is allowed at the end for open forum discussions and all-member participation. Aside from its primary purpose of informing students on current affairs, the club attempts to give all members an opportunity to be vocal about national and international questions.

The club sponsors a Clarke-Loras current affairs discussion group as a supplementary activity to its own quarterly meetings. These discussions give the students a chance to get varied opinions on current topics of thought and also to defend their own views.

Membership in the Social Science Club or the Clarke-Loras discussion group is open to any student.

BIOLOGY MAJORS are eligible for membership in the Biology Forum. The purposes of the club are to gain a better knowledge of the modern scientific world, and to develop ability to discuss intelligently problems, theories, and laws of science.

Meetings are held quarterly and have as their dominant features panel discussions on current scientific data. Officers of the Biology Forum are Joan Hogan, president, and Ann Marie Byrne, secretary-treasurer.

ART MAJORS AND MINORS have formed this organization for two purposes—to educate and to entertain.

Their first quarterly meeting centered around a travelogue and a movie. A marshmallow roast at the fireplace in the Art Studio brought the club members together for a purely social evening at Christmas time. In conjunction with the showing of Anna Hyatt Huntington's bronze exhibit a discussion of her work was presented at the third quarter meeting. Jeanne Heitkamp, senior art major, exhibited her work in a special showing during the final week of school.

ART CLUB

THE CECILIAN CIRCLE

THE CECILIAN CIRCLE, which incorporates the Glee Club, is a club open to anyone interested in the appreciation of music. At quarterly meetings club members study current trends in music, as well as the famous masters and their works.

The Cecilians sponsored several artist programs this year and presented every month the repertoire program featuring student musicians. The club played a major part in several musical programs offered this year. During the pre-Christmas period the chorus presented a program of Christmas hymns over radio station KDTH. The Schola, a select group of singers, sang the Propers at the High Masses celebrated in the Chapel of the Sacred Heart.

Standing, Myrna Johnson, Lillian Cunningham, Mary Virginia Schuster, Jacquelyn Sullivan, Ione Michels, Patricia Morrey, Patricia Paige.

ORCHESTRA

THE CLARKE COLLEGE ORCHESTRA was re-organized over a year ago and since that time it has been an important part of most college concerts and other programs. The orchestra made its debut in the spring of 1948 when it presented its own concert, featuring the student arrangement of the Clarke Shield Song. Their second annual concert was given April 7.

Mary Virginia Hilvers was concertmaster of the orchestra for the past year.

MIXED CHORUS

SINGING A VARIETY of numbers ranging from Gregorian music to a Fred Waring arrangement of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," the Clarke-Loras Mixed Chorus, under the direction of the Reverend Joseph G. Kleiner, opened and closed the annual spring concert.

Over 150 members of the Mixed Chorus traveled to Cedar Rapids May 2 to participate in the annual Iowa Music Festival. Clarke and Loras will be hosts at the 1950 Festival.

The LABARUM

A CONSISTENT ALL-CATHOLIC and All-American publication, The Labarum, college literary magazine, has added another successful year to its 40-year history. The 1948-49 Labarum carries a modern cover design and a new page format. In addition to the general excellence of the magazine, individual short story writers and poets received national acclaim in literary contests.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN WRITING are urged to join the Press Club which sponsors the two college publications, The Labarum and The Courier.

Under the presidency of Helen McMahon the club conducted Clarke's second annual essay contest for high school senior girls. The club also sponsored a literary contest open to pledges of the Press Club.

Officers of the Press Club for the past year were Miss McMahon, Peggy Sullivan, Jean Jungels, and Paula Long.

The LABARUM

A CONSISTENT ALL-CATHOLIC and All-American publication, The Labarum, college literary magazine, has added another successful year to its 40-year history. The 1948-49 Labarum carries a modern cover design and a new page format. In addition to the general excellence of the magazine, individual short story writers and poets received national acclaim in literary contests.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN WRITING are urged to join the Press Club which sponsors the two college publications, The Labarum and The Courier.

Under the presidency of Helen McMahon the club conducted Clarke's second annual essay contest for high school senior girls. The club also sponsored a literary contest open to pledges of the Press Club.

Officers of the Press Club for the past year were Miss McMahon, Peggy Sullivan, Jean Jungels, and Paula Long.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

SPORTS-MINDED STUDENTS join the Women's Athletic Association. The WAA opened the year's activities with "Tag Day," and later sponsored the all-college picnic at Eagle Point Park, and the volleyball, basketball, tennis, and badminton tournaments. Highlights of the club's activities was the annual Water Ballet. This year the club also sponsored a swimming meet.

Recognition was given to outstanding members of the WAA at the club's Awards Program in May. Nine seniors were given bronze trophies, and other students received sweaters, letters, and emblems.

THE NATIONAL FEDERATION of Catholic College Students, of which Clarke is a member, unites the student bodies of Catholic colleges and universities to form a Christian-minded apostolate among the laity and to represent Catholic college students on a national plane.

Through the initiative of Jane Mitchell, the Iowa unit of the NFCCS was organized in the spring of 1948. Peggy Sullivan was elected secretary of this unit at the last meeting.

The most important project of the NFCCS this year was the drive for European student relief. To obtain funds for this cause Clarke sponsored an all-college carnival.

KAPPA GAMMA PI is the National Honor Society of Catholic women's colleges which was organized in 1926. The society was created "to set a higher standard of character, scholarship, service, and leadership by emphasizing the value of scholarly endeavor."

Members of Kappa Gamma Pi, who are scattered from coast to coast, associate themselves with all movements and organizations which have as their ultimate goal the destinies of American womanhood.

Standing, Catherine Cullen, daughter of Lillian Jackman Cullen; Peggy Gaffney, daughter of Mary Stehly Gaffney.

THE CLARKE COLLEGE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION was organized in 1885 to maintain among graduates an interest in the growth and development of the school: to encourage their sponsorship of projects in the cause of higher education of women; to publicize through personal example the work and achievements of the school; to foster its ideals and standards by encouraging a spirit of affectionate loyalty and intelligent cooperation.

Clarke's biennial alumnae reunion was held last August and at this time new officers were elected. Mary Loneragan Rhomberg, Dubuque, was succeeded as president by Mary Meyer Imhoff, Davenport. Other officers are Bonnie Hogan, Chicago; Catherine Moran O'Malley, Chicago; Florence Tierney Cox, Butte, Montana; Mary Baxter Hickey, Dubuque; Anne Coryn, Moline, Illinois; Dorothy K. Stark, Cedar Rapids.

COLLEGE DANCES

WHETHER IT'S a Clarke-Loras "mixer," or a formal all-college prom, Clarke students look forward to dances.

The social season was opened this year with the "Tennis Twirl," an informal dance sponsored by the sodality on October 8. Helen Mier and Virginia Heidkamp were co-chairmen.

Geraldine Feeney, senior, reigned over the Loras Homecoming activities the weekend of November 3 and was crowned queen at the homecoming dance November 5. Included in her court were Helen Mier, Patricia Ferguson, Mary Elaine Drew, and Joan Costello.

SOPHOMORES SPONSORED the first all-college dance of the year on November 19. Hal Webster's orchestra from Iowa City provided the music for "Mississippi Medley." Mary Kelleher and Betty Campbell were co-chairmen of the soiree and Rose Vogel planned the decorations which followed the showboat theme.

The second annual Clarke Christmas dance was held in the Louis XVI Ballroom of the Sherman Hotel on December 30. June Dolembro was the chairman. During the same holidays the Loras Chicago club sponsored a dance in the Bal Tabarin Room of the Sherman.

THE ANNUAL LORAS DELTA SIGMA dance was held February 11. Music for this Valentine formal was furnished by Shep Field's orchestra.

The next Friday evening the juniors entertained at their annual formal dance. Sophistication was the theme of the decorations, planned by Barbara Hutchinson and Mary Frances Jaeger. Patricia Morrey was general chairman. Hal Webster's orchestra played.

Griff Williams and his orchestra set the tempo for the Loras spring dance which was May 6. The following Friday evening Bill Russo's orchestra played for the final dance of the year—the senior prom. General chairman of the Rose Ball was Patricia Morrison. Jane Ann Davidsaver and Eleanor Grotkin headed the decorations committee. Highlight of the dance was the presentation of flowers to 1949 senior prom queen—Jane Ann Davidsaver. Her attendants were Ann Coogan, Mary Anne Smith, Veronica Goodall, and Dolores Classen.

SPORTS TOURNAMENTS

TOURNAMENT TIME comes around quite frequently at Clarke. The first competition on the sports schedule is the volleyball tournament in the fall. This year the freshmen defeated the twice-champion senior team and were awarded the coveted trophy. To balance this trophy in the freshman study hall, the frosh aimed at the basketball cup in the February tournament—and wrested it from the seniors who had held it for three years.

Although class honor was not at stake, competition and enthusiasm were still manifested in the badminton tournament which was won by Mary Hoyman who defeated Rosemary Wiltgen in the final round.

Kathy Leonard came out on top in the ping-pong tournament when she was victorious over Rosemarie Browne.

The Clarke-Loras Bowling league was organized in spring by the WAA. High scorers among the eight teams which played every Saturday morning were Kathy Leonard, Betty Campbell, Hank Kubitz, Bill Quinn, Joanne Brady, Del Schiferl, Shirley Weis, Mary Fran O'Byrne and Bill Schend.

Tennis honors went to Janaan Noonan who defeated Jacquelyn Sullivan in the final round of the tournament.

CHRISTMAS AT CLARKE

YULETIDE CAROLS, snow-covered pines, gifts for the orphans, sleigh rides, mistletoe in cellophane, a bright Christmas tree in MFC Hall, the festive spirit of a "Merrie Old England" dinner, the solemn significance of Candlelighting—all this means Christmas to Clarke students.

This year the entire school took part in the Christmas production The Cantic of the Nativity. Hundreds of Dubuquers crowded the college auditorium December 16 while Clarke students told the story of the Nativity and ushered in the Christmas season with their traditional Candlelighting ceremony.

Memories of Christmas at Clarke will also include the pre-holiday banquet which was celebrated this year with all the pomp and pageantry of medieval England. Mary Hoyman was the Lord Host, and Myrna Johnson was her Lady Fair. Also present, in colorful costumes, were other personages customarily represented at a feast in Merrie Old England.
